Leave The Gun and turn right onto the road. Follow this road, past the sign 'Pick Hill' on the right, and at the top of the hill you can see a sign for 'Rose Bank Farm' on the right. At this crossroad turn left onto the track opposite the entrance of the farm (you can see a 'Public Bridleway' stone next to the track). Follow the track through the farm and through the forest until you meet a gate on the right (1).

Walk through this gate and follow the trail down the hill. Go over a small footbridge (2) and walk up the hill along the edge of the field. In the corner of the field climb over the style and continue through the farm. When you reach the road turn left and keep walking for 0.8 mile (1.2 km) until an iron gate on the left (3). In front of the gate is a wooden signpost 'Wealdenway'.

Follow this signpost and walk through a smaller wooden gate onto the track. Continue until the end of this track and then keep walking straight along the edge of the field until a small wooden footbridge (4). Walk over this footbridge and follow the path across a small field into the forest. Carry on up the hill through the forest until you see a post marked by a yellow arrow. Walk past this wooden post and turn left.

Follow the trail along the edge of the field (field is on the right), later bear to the right. Keep walking along the edge (field is on the right, trees are on the left) until a style in the corner (5). Climb over the style and continue diagonally across the next field. In the second corner climb over the next style (6) and turn left onto the road. Keep walking along this road (at the crossroad follow the signpost 'Horam' and 'Heathfield') and go back to The Gun.
