1. Waterfield Lane

2. The gate at the end of the road

3. The wooden bridge

4. The open field

5. The oak tree

6. The final gate

From the Never Say Never turn right on the road and continue for approximately a quarter of a mile. After the bus stop take the footpath on the right (pic 1).

Continue down Waterfield Lane, passing some bungalows on your right. At the bottom of the road there is a wooden gate (pic 2) Go through this and continue down the path passing the rugby pitches on your right. (Please keep any dogs on a lead at all times). Once at the bottom. Turn right onto the tarmac path Continue across the rugby fields once the path comes to an end and turns left.

Across the rugby field you will see a gap in the hedge. Head for this going between the two rugby fields (pic 3) Go over the small wooden bridge and keep to the right of the next field and head for the metal gate. (pic 4) Continue through the gate and across the next field. To the next gate. Go straight over the private road and continue along the hedge to your right.

Approximately half way down you will see a metal lynch gate in the hedge. Take this into the next field and head towards the Oak tree at the bottom. (pic 5). Go through the gate straight across the track and through the second gate. (pic 6) Follow the path round to the right and turn left on the road.

Continue up and across the road and up the path to the left of the house and Tracey Road. Go to the top and the main road and the Never Say Never will be on your right.
